

More than half of the people who responded preferred morning deliveries when we asked:

Which time of day would you prefer your parcels and mail to be delivered to your home?

You answered

